

AGENDA

RODOS PALACE HOTEL

Iraklidon Avenue (Trianton), 85100 Rhodes, Greece

Thursday, October 3
10:00-11:00	High level Opening Welcome opening by the President of RAE, N. Boulaxis <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - J.F. Carencó, President of CRE - A. Sdoukou, Secretary General for Energy, Ministry of Environment & Energy - A. Poullikkas, President of CERA - C. Poletti, Chair of the BoR of ACER, Commissioner of ARERA - G. Chatzimarkos, Regional Governor of South Aegean - A. Kambourakis, Mayor of Rhodes
11:00-11:30	Coffee Break
11:30-13:00	Workshop 1: Regulatory aspects: opportunities for islands <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - European framework for RES development and island opportunities, Irene Bonvissuto, European Commission Representative - The role of energy communities in the energy transition of islands, Kostas Komninos, DAFNI network Director - The regulatory experience of the Portuguese island regions, Prof. Jorge Garcia Esteves, Director of Infrastructure and Networks, ERSE - Regulatory framework for e-mobility, E. Gotzou, Director of Consumers' Protection & Retail Markets, RAE
13:00-14:00	Break
14:00-16:00	Workshop 2: Infrastructure development and innovation in islands <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Renewables energy integration in Canary Islands isolated power systems - Challenges and solutions, René Ascanio Suárez, Head of Isolated Systems Dept., Red Eléctrica de España - Greek Non-Interconnected Islands - Current infrastructure & development, Eirini Stavropoulou, Director of Islands Network Operation Dept., HEDNO SA. - Energy storage brings benefits beyond renewable integration – the Azorean experience in Graciosa, Francisco Gonçalves, Electricidade dos Açores, (EDA)

	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Interconnection of Greek islands, I. Margaritis, Vice Chairman & Chief Officer of Technology, System Development & Strategy, ADMIE SA - The Naeras Project – Hybrid plant of Icaria, K. Natsis, Project Manager, PPC Renewables - Small-scale LNG in the Greek islands, D. Kardomateas, Director, Strategy & Development Division, DESFA SA
	Friday, October 4
10:00-12:30	Workshop 3: Islands energy needs and how to guarantee project success <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Crete - Solutions for securing adequacy and security of supply, Prof. S. Papathanassiou, School of Electrical & Computer Engineering, National Technical University of Athens - The Immediate Need for 100% Coverage of Energy Needs of Small Islands, Prof. Christofis J. Koroneos, Mayor of Nisyros - Madeira strategy to boost renewable electricity production - Projects under development (isolated grid), Mr. Agostinho Pereira Figueira, Studies and Planning Director, Empresa de Electricidade da Madeira SA - Results and conclusions of the Tilos Horizon Research Project, Prof. John Kaldellis, Vice Rector, University of West Attica - Energy Transition of the Island of Kastellorizo, A. Perellis, Research Associate, Institute of Energy for SE Europe (IENE) - RES Auctions in Non-Interconnected Islands, Dr. D. Papachristou, Coordinator of RES Auction Team, Director of the Press & Public Relations Office, RAE - Competitive Scenarios for allocating Energy Resources with capacity and proximity constrains. The use of e-auctions in Greece, Mr. Thanassis G. Petmezas, CosmoONE, CEO
12:30-13:00	Coffee Break
13:00-14:00	Workshop 4: Financing energy transition in EU islands <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Accelerating and financing energy transition in European islands, Christian De Gromard, Energy Practice Leader, Agence Française de Développement (AFD) - Financing in the Energy Sector, H. Damaskos, Principal Banker, EBRD - The views of RES producers' association, A. Kambouris, President, Association of Electric Energy Producers of the Dodecanese (SPIEF MDN)
14:00-14:30	Concluding Remarks & Closing Ceremony

USEFUL INFORMATION

Venue

RODOS PALACE HOTEL

Iraklidon Avenue (Trianton), 85100 Rhodes, Greece

Working language

Simultaneous interpretation will be provided in Greek, French and English.

Presentations can be made in all three languages.

Fees

There are no registration fees for this Forum.

Accommodation

Special rates at Rodos Palace Hotel will apply for the Forum participants.

Hotel information and enquiries: info@rodos-palace.gr.